Engaged with you.

Enhanced WebAssign helps students learn, not just do homework.

Unlike homework systems that depend on memorization, Enhanced WebAssign's educational technology engages instead of drills to elevate thinking and foster a deeper understanding of course concepts to support online math homework, physics homework, and astronomy homework.

The screenshot shows the Enhanced WebAssign homepage. At the top right, a user profile box identifies the user as Sarah Kochanski, a Student Registration Self-Enrollment Demo user for Fall 2010, with Instructor Jill Staut Brooks/Cole. Below this is a 'Home' header. A 'WebAssign Notices' banner states that access codes must be entered by Monday, May 31, 2010, at 12:00 AM EDT, with a link to 'Get access now.' The main content area is divided into several sections: 'My Assignments' (with a sub-section 'Current Assignments (3)' listing three assignments with due dates), 'Communication' (showing no current forums), 'Grades' (showing no grades posted), 'Announcements' (welcoming the user to Intermediate Algebra), 'My Calendar' (set to May 2010), and 'About this Class' (providing class start/end dates and a link to purchase course access or an eBook). Two callout boxes highlight specific features: 'Access Assignments' points to the assignment list, and 'Access eBook if available.' points to the eBook purchase link.
